Alfama
Boutique
Hotel

Welcome to Alfama, the oldest and one of the most traditional and charismatic neighborhoods of Lisbon. Stage for popular street markets, emblematic Fado houses and steep and narrow residential streets.

This poetic place is the setting for the Inspira Alfama House, located facing the overwhelming Sé de Lisboa and positioned, as most of the Alfama neighborhood itself, as a belvedere and a window towards the city but also towards the sea, the ultimate door to the unknown world beyond.

The House Inspira Alfama is to be lived as an experience. A walk into the house and the history of someone that has lived a thousand lives and a thousand experiences and has brought into this place his treasures.

Much like the story of Lisbon itself, with a deep-rooted heritage and extensive history that, nevertheless, keeps its position as one of the most charismatic and vibrant cities of Europe. A city that effortlessly blends traditional heritage, with striking modernism and progressive thinking.

Location

Located in the Alfama neighborhood, with beautiful streets and alleys full of colorful houses, a dynamic gastronomic life and several viewpoints with the most beautiful views of the city.

Alfama has several buildings and points that help tell the story of Portugal.
Only 6km far from the airport
